EX PARTE MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Plaintiff moves for an Order Granting Default Judgment against Defendant Patricia Russo has failed to answer, appear or otherwise defend, and the time to otherwise move or plead has expired and has not been extended in this action. This motion is made pursuant to District Court of Civil Procedure, Rule 55(b) (2), and is based upon the accompanying Plaintiff 'affidavit of support' with attached Exhibits.

Defendant Patricia Russo has only filed a notice of appearance on March 27, 2004, that does not refer to the merits of the claim does demonstrate a termination to defend against the claim and will not "preclude" the entry of default; See 10 Moore' Federal Practice, § 55.10[2][c](Matthew bender, 3d ed.). Additionally Entry of Default severely limits Party as defendant Patricia Russo 's subsequent participation in action. The most important consequence of the fact that a default is entered (Rule 55(a))is that the defaulting party is no longer entitled in the determination of its Liability in the action; See Dow Chem. Pac. Ltd. v. Rascator Maritime S. A., 782 F.2d 329, 336 (2d Cir. 1986).
